Epiphany: The Light Still Shines! -This Month from Pastor Eric

Each year, after the Live Outdoor Nativity, there are many comments from those who attend about particular scenes that somehow made an impression or touched their hearts: the heavenly chorus suddenly appearing in the church window, sheep and goats climbing up on straw bales at the sight of the angelic messenger, the little baby reaching up from Mary's arms in front of the illuminated cross, the interactions between Gabriel & Mary & Joseph, activity among the townspeople and innkeeper as Mary & Joseph arrive, the joy of the child's arrival and everyone singing "Silent Night" as the baby is laid in a manger. One scene which touches my heart each year is the sight of the herald carrying a lone candle out into the middle of the darkened church lawn, as the words of John's gospel are shared: "What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people ... The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it!"

As we move from Christmas into the season of Epiphany, the theme of light will remain prevalent. The Epiphany season begins with the light of a star leading magi to the infant Jesus. It will conclude with an adult Jesus shining brightly on the mountaintop at his transfiguration. In between, we will hear stories of how Jesus illuminated many hearts and changed many lives, as God's light of hope, compassion, and forgiveness burst into the world.

But the miracle is not only that the light shone through Jesus back in 1st-century Palestine, but also that the light continues to shine today through those who have been baptized into Christ, marked with his cross, and blessed with the Holy Spirit: disciples like you! During the past weeks of Advent and Christmas, that light shone in so many ways. At our final Wednesday Advent prayer service, I remember the scene of 840 meals packed in 140 bags filling shopping carts at the base of the Chrismon tree, while the altar was literally surrounded by a mountain of gifts donated for our Dove Tree teens in need. I remember the stories of nursing home residents weeping with tears of joy as our Living Springs carolers visited them on a Saturday afternoon. I remember scenes of our own LS children sharing their story of an "Unexpected Christmas," all culminating with the congregation joining hands in a great circle around the sanctuary and singing, as little Mary held baby Jesus among us, standing on a mat that simply said, "Welcome!" I recall the scene of our Preschoolers/Afterschoolers singing songs of Christmas to a packed sanctuary on a Friday afternoon. I remember TELS adults being awed by the crèches at Mepkin Abbey, disciples laughing with one another at the congregational Christmas party, and our youth finding joy in their many times of Christmas fellowship and service. I recall the scene of disciples so prayerfully placing their sealed commitments of discipleship in the manger. I remember children shouting "JOY!" at the Christmas Eve family service; I remember inspiring music shared by our instruments, bells, and choir at the latter 2 services; and all together, over 300 folks lifting high the lights of candles to celebrate the Savior's birth on Christmas Eve. I remember the sight of worshippers placing little hearts into the swaddling clothes of the manger and seeing the light of Christ's hope shining in their faces as they received the gift of God's love in our Lord's body and blood. So much light shining – and in many, many other ways as well!

As we move into this season of Epiphany and a new calendar year of 2015, I marvel at all the ways the light of God's love continues to shine in this world. In 2015, we will renew our focus on the Vision of Mission that the Spirit has given this community of disciples. We will continue to share those blue Disciple-Dot stories of God's work in our world. We will celebrate the role of our new Mission Visionary Teams and begin to fully implement the process of forming Spirit-Tug groups in 3 areas of Mission Vision: Active Discipleship, Ministries of Hope, and Community Youth/School Partnerships. All of this we will approach through those 7 Mission Lens, which remind us that Living Springs is a community of disciples living out in the world, and the light of God's hope in Christ shines not just through things that we do together here in this place, but in all the ways the Spirit works through each of you in the locations of our daily lives.

The light of God's love shone brightly on that night in Bethlehem so long ago – and that light continues to shine brightly among you, the disciples of Living Springs! May the light of Christ illumine many lives through us all in 2015, as we move forward to live out the Mission Vision that God has given us!

With much love in Christ, who is our light, Pastor Eric

How Is God Calling You? Network Your Spirit-Tug with Other Disciples!

The Ministry Goals below represent visions the Spirit spoke through you, the disciples of Living Springs. Our task is to spread these visions all over the place, like seed of God's kingdom being sown over all types of soil.

Which of these visions tug at your heart personally as a disciple of Jesus?

If you have not yet done so, fill out a Spirit-tug sheet from the narthex – or just call the office or send an e-mail and say, "I think I've got a Spirit-tug for #__." We will network folks who have similar Spirit-Tugs and see where the Spirit will lead, either in daily life out in the world or in something together here at LS. As an example, we already have folks following up on Spirit-Tugs for D1, D2, D7, H3, H5, H10, P4, P6. Where is your call?

LS Disciples out in the Community

One day in church, someone was reading the bible and my child turns to me and whispered, "Hey, I have heard this before." With her look of confidence and hope, I was blessed to see a glimpse of who God is creating her to be.

After hearing about the FAITH5 stuff, I grabbed a FAITH5 sheet from the narthex table. The Spirit moved me to make sure I did it tonight with our son. My son overheard me telling my husband about it and began asking questions about it. I couldn't tell if my son was really interested in it or not. But before he went to bed, he shouted out loud, it's time to do FAITH5! God is moving us in the right direction!

I was eating at Waffle House one day and at the end of my meal, the bread delivery man came in to drop off the invoice and bread. I smiled in his direction and said Hi. He came over to my table and said you have a nice smile. I thanked him for noticing and said, "God bless you today." He said, "Thank you, ma'am. I needed that. Today is the anniversary of my mother's death and I have really been missing her. She had a great smile just like you do. God has touched me today through you. Thank you." I gave him a hug because I had no idea that a smile and a few words could make that kind of a positive impact on someone else's life.

SHARE YOUR DISCIPLE DOT STORY

Has God worked a disciple moment through you or someone else during the week? Pick up a disciple-dot story slip from the narthex table and share the story of God's work - place your slip in the blue-dot basket, click here for an online form or email your story to the church office. Stories are published anonymously. This isn't about what "we" are doing, but about God's work in the world! See the website, bulletin, newsletter, and Facebook page for some inspiring examples.

Where will be your Disciple-Dot moments this week?

Add your Red-Dot (home address) and multiple Blue-Dots (weekly disciple moments) to our Narthex Mission Map! Don't forget to share God's Blue-Dot stories!

Thank You!

Thank you again so much to you and to your congregation. Every year it melts my heart so see the kindness that is poured out to children very few others care about!

Thank you! Morgan Lea

MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

The next Lutheran Marriage Encounter in the Carolina's will be held at the Clarion Hotel in Myrtle Beach on February 13-15. Those who are interested in learning more about LME and about the weekend are invited to the web site www.godlovesmarriage.org and explore for themselves. There is also an application opportunity on the web site if they would like to attend.

Just as a reminder, the weekend has been pre-paid by others who have attended previously. The only fee is the $45 application fee. At the end of the weekend attendees will be given the opportunity to make a contribution to provide for another couple to attend a future weekend on the same terms. In this way we hope to never turn away a couple for financial concerns. We want to make the experience available to all married couples who would like to deepen their relationship with each other and with Christ.

Best wishes for a wonderful Thanksgiving and a Blessed Christmas.

Preschool & Afterschool Care News

From Tammy Mancuso, Director

Blessings to a joyous year in 2014,

We have had the opportunity to see God's works in our preschool in a variety of ways this month.

Our Preschool Families came together with B.H.S. to sponsor a family of 4 in the Families Helping Families project. This was the first year we had taken this on. I am proud to say that in just a few days we were able to meet and exceed our goal!

The joy of God's work in the Mission of our Preschool was evident as our children came together to make cards for veterans and residents at the Rice Estates.

We held our Annual Christmas Program. The children sang songs and told about the true meaning of Christmas, the joy and peace of God's eternal love.

We are truly blessed to be part of a wonderful community that shares God's love on a daily basis.

Thank you and many blessings to you and your families

Love, TAMMY AND THE PRESCHOOL STAFF

ELCA NATIONAL YOUTH GATHERING IN DETROIT, JULY 15-19, 2015

www.ELCA.org/gathering

We have 7 Youth and 3 Adults committed to going to Detroit!
Do you think one person can make a difference in the world?

One Person Can Make a Difference

Detroit, Michigan—Every Saturday or Sunday Robby Elmers loads up the family minivan. Since he is only 12 years old, Robby cannot drive so his grandmother does the honors. They drive from their small city outside of Detroit to the center core of Motown. Once there Robby sets up a table filled with hot dogs, potato salad and other treats and begins to serve the homeless of Detroit.

According to the Detroit Free Press there are some 20,000 homeless people living in the Motor City. Some people think Robby is wasting his time and birthday and Christmas money but not Robby, "It makes me feel good to be able to help" he told the Detroit News. While Robby might only be 12 years old, he is giving hope to a group of people that often feels overlooked. "It is amazing that a child so young would be out here shaking hands, talking to everyone and caring," Shauna Johnson, A Detroit homeless woman told the Detroit News, "Robby is right out there in front."

Now ask yourself:

- Do you think one person can make a difference in the world?
- Is Robby wasting his time and money?
- What is your passion...something you feel God is calling you to do in this world?

What do you notice about the "new leaders" shown? What else do you see?

10 Living Springs Disciples will be headed to Detroit this summer for the ELCA Youth Gathering. Together we will be instruments of hope to a city that is getting back on its feet after some really tough times.

WILL YOU CONSIDER DONATING TO THIS TRIP SO THAT OUR TEN DISCIPLES CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS IN DETROIT?

If so, please place your check in the offering plate and put "NYG 2015" in the Memo section.

ELCA youth are not unlike their peers in that they are people of action, and they like to take action alongside their friends. Friends are extremely important, often influencing the direction and quality of one's life. As friends united in Christ, we begin collecting In-kind Donations for the Gathering, which Detroit residents desperately need. So will you help us too?

Scholastic Summer Reading packets

When children succeed in school, it is often an indicator that their needs are being met in other areas of their lives. The shockingly low standardized test scores and graduation rates for students in the majority of the Detroit public schools are a sign of dysfunction across institutions meant to support children. It has been shown that poor educational systems are one of the root causes of systemic poverty. In Detroit, students are being held captive to the systems of poverty by failures in both their schools and in their neighborhoods. Comparing Detroit students' test scores to scores of students statewide and in urban districts nationwide, it is clear the Detroit public schools are in crisis.

Many organizations, including Excellent Schools Detroit are doing their part to reverse this trend. Formed in 2010 as a coalition, Excellent Schools Detroit's mission is to provide an excellent education for every Detroit child, from cradle to career. They believe that a high quality education is the key to future opportunity and they believe, as we do, that Detroit's children deserve the best. Ensuring each child receives the best means that they work with many community partners including the ELCA Youth Gathering and Scholastic, a company that has produced engaging educational materials and media to help children learn to read and love to learn since 1920.

You can help Excellent Schools Detroit by purchasing Scholastic Summer Reading packets for a Detroit student for $25 each. We are especially excited about these materials because Scholastic worked directly with Detroit teachers to identify the books they want their students to read. Gathering participants will interact with students using these books and hopefully contribute to closing the reading achievement gap.

Art supplies

The Detroit area's diverse population includes African American, French, Belgian, German, Latino, Polish, Greek, Italian, and Middle Eastern neighbors. Each group adds its rich cultural traditions to enhance the area's landscape. The Detroit area's rich and diverse population combines to make it a wellspring of creative, intellectual and emotional inspiration.

A rich artistic community gives people new things to do, see, hear, feel and think about. It inspires innovation and provides the social connectedness that builds community. ELCA Youth Gathering participants will join community organizing initiatives to ensure that the arts and culture remain a vital part of the Detroit community through innovation, collaboration and advocacy. One arts organizations making a difference in Detroit is called The Alley Project, which is a collaboration with youth from Grace in Action, a new ELCA congregation in Detroit's primarily Latino community. Your $15 gift will purchase supplies that ELCA youth will use to help build community through the arts.

Blessed to Be a Blessing - "The Joy of Giving"

I am very excited about the Stewardship Ministry Team's approach to our "stewardship campaign" again this year. As we continue with the theme of "Blessed to Be A Blessing", we are reminded that as we receive our blessings, we are "Blessed to be a Blessing." God gives us the time, talents, and money to support Christ's ministry through Living Springs Lutheran Church, to be disciples, to feed the hungry, to lift up the lonely, to love one another, and to spread God's word.

Discipleship Commitment slips (and a special envelope for your slip) were distributed to each person. A copy of the discipleship slip is below (if you use this copy, you can pick up a special envelope in the narthex). On January 4th, the 2nd Sunday of Christmas, our 2015 commitments of discipleship will be dedicated. The symbolic "Joy of Giving" box will remain in the altar area - it contains a slit through which your sealed commitments may still be added in upcoming weeks. These sealed envelopes will never be opened; they are between you and God. We encourage every member to bring this gift to the b. Young children can draw pictures of their discipleship focus for next year. All of us adults should look inward at our blessings and then remember to use those blessings to the glory of God.

Thanks be to God for all of our many blessings. Mike Davidson, Stewardship Chairperson Blessed to Be a Blessing!

Seal this part of the sheet inside the special envelope.

In thanksgiving for God's blessings and abundant grace, I offer with joy what God has first given me: my time, talent, and possessions – all signs of God's gracious love in my life. May the Spirit strengthen me as I keep these commitments and grow in my discipleship. I give thanks that I am daily being blessed by God to be a blessing for others. May I experience more deeply the joy of living a life of giving – in the image of God! Amen.

In response to God's blessings of grace and love in my life, these are commitments of discipleship I will strive to keep in 2015 (children may draw pictures):

COMMITMENTS OF WORSHIP & DEVOTION:

COMMITMENTS OF WITNESS & SERVICE:

COMMITMENTS OF STUDY & FAITH GROWTH:

COMMITMENT OF FINANCIAL BLESSINGS:

As I grow in my understanding and gratitude for God's blessings, I strive to grow in my giving to God out of thanksgiving and joy - that I may know more deeply the joy of giving and be a growing source of blessing for others:

= My weekly/monthly giving goal: $ _____

CELEBRATE YOUR BAPTISM

Don't forget to check the bulletin to see if we will be celebrating your Baptismal Anniversary during this month's Sunday worship services. Immediately below the Gathering Music, there are printed the names of those who are celebrating a baptismal anniversary in that week. When the gathering music begins, individuals can quietly come forward to meet Pastor Eric at the baptismal fountain. There, he will re-trace the cross with the water on your forehead and offer a special prayer of blessing for you (children may be accompanied by parents). There is nothing to be anxious about - everything is done quietly while the music is being played. For those who know only the month of your Baptism, you can join us on the first Sunday of the month (if you prefer some other Sunday, please let us know). If you do not know your baptismal information, then please pick a month when you would like to celebrate this gift of God's grace in your life – and notify the office, so that we can add you to the celebration list (we'll simply mark the choice of your month with an asterisk). Even if you don't know the exact date, it's important to celebrate this special gift of God's grace in your life. Again, we encourage everyone to research your Baptismal date and find out as much information as you can – let us know if we can help!
